The covers

Newsstand This sustainable Sydney home and studio, p100, is just one of the hot properties in this issue. Photographed by Anson Smart

Subscribers Large industrial-style windows in an unconventional Mexican new-build, p148. Photographed by Nin Solis/Living Inside

'It is a house with two souls. One is simple, ancient; the other modern, sleek, fashion oriented'

Living area Another light by Bernardo Palazzo, created from old sieves, hangs beside the 'Ghost Out' sofa by Paola Navone for Gervasoni. The 'InOut' chairs are also by the designer, again for Gervasoni. The 'Soori' coffee table is by Soo Chan for Poliform. All that separates this cool but cosy space from the outside is white linen curtains – for similar, try Piglet ➤

Bathroom Floor-to-ceiling glazing allows anyone in the shower to enjoy the incredible view of the olive groves and sea beyond. The tap and shower hardware are all from Vola
Guest bedroom All the bedrooms in this home have their own private courtyard. The dotted stool is from the 'InOut' collection by Paola Navone for Gervasoni ►

Terrace An extension of the living area, this sunny spot features bamboo chairs – for similar try La Redoute – and wooden side tables from the ‘Brick’ collection by Paola Navone for Gervasoni. See Stockists page for details TD

'I wanted the sea to be visible from every room'
