Le Dimore dell'Idris

The breakfast lounge in the "Le Dimore dell'Idris" hotel complex overlooks the ancient city of Matera, nestled in the imposing rocky spur that dominates the Sasso Caveoso district. The interior has been enhanced without altering its original material character, leaving exposed all the architectural elements made of tuff blocks and strips of excavated rock.

Thanks to the perfect combination of modern and traditional, the fumishings in Gervasoni's Gray collection perfectly complement the design concept, preserving the discreet colours of the atmosphere to create a sense of continuity between inside and outside.
