

#GervasoniInmotion

Gervasoni products in the dining area: refined and timeless

Anything can be solved with a good lunch and a smile and it is for this reason that Gervasoni dedicates various collections to a contemporary way of perceiving the dining area. Different styles, colours and materials meld together harmoniously to give life to refined and timeless settings, where the table, symbol of conviviality par excellence, becomes the one, true protagonist.

Read all

"Non sono io! Siete voi!" - Mostra di Giordano Floreancig

Gervasoni goes beyond the realm of furnishings, to get closer to increasingly varied situations aimed at telling the story of the culture of Friuli in a different language. This time entering the art world as a sponsor of the exhibit “Non sono io! Siete voi?” (“It’s not me! Is it you?”) by Giordano Floreancig, which will be on exhibit in the church of San Francesco in Udine from 19 March to 1 May 2022. Original artist, very popular on an international level, he will use his canvases to directly tell stories to his audience. A multimedia exhibition where paintings are associated with original songs created specifically to ensure an all-round sensory experience.

#GervasoniNsight

Focus on: Gray 38

Vintage soul and contemporary design characterise Gray, an articulated collection that mixes the austere elegance of classic furnishings with the simplicity of Nordic forms. Sophisticated and timeless Gray tells the company’s extensive expertise in processing the most diverse materials. A wide range of materials and finishes make the new Gray 38 round table a versatile solution: the sculptural, elegantly curved white porcelain stoneware central leg can be combined with a slatted walnut or oak top available in the colours of the collection or in white Carrara marble.

Discover

#GervasoniNpress

Marie Claire Maison (FR)

Homes & Gardens (UK)

Wohnrevue (CH)